

“If You Build it, They Will Come” Part 1 “In Order to Rebuild We Must Be Rebuilt”

Nehemiah 1:1-4; Romans 8:28-31; Romans 12:2;
Nehemiah 1:6-7; Nehemiah 2:2

1. Nehemiah leads the _____ and last return to _____ after the Babylonian exile.
2. Nehemiah was granted permission by the King to _____ the shattered _____ of Jerusalem.
3. Despite opposition from the outside and abuse from within, the task was completed in only _____ days.
4. God _____ us through pain but He also comforts us in the pain.
5. Rebuilding is a _____ that takes time.
6. Nehemiah prayed for God’s _____ with the King.
7. The rebuilding process can only begin when we are _____ to God.
8. Once we confront the pain in our lives, we’ll be able to see more clearly the pain in the _____, the _____ and the _____.
9. Sometimes, like Nehemiah, God calls us to rebuild _____ that others have learned to ignore.
10. Like Nehemiah going before the King, we must _____ God.
