

Rebuilding is a Constant Mission

Romans 6:4; Nehemiah 6:16; Nehemiah 13:18; Nehemiah 13:26;
Nehemiah 13:30-31; Exodus 16:3; Luke 17:20-21; Matthew 6:33

1. New life in Christ is _____ but the fruit takes a long time to grow.
2. Rebuilding takes a lot of _____ and _____; we must align our hearts with God's.
3. It's our responsibility to invest in things that have _____ value: God, family, church and community.
4. After the wall was _____, everyone knew it was _____ who had done the work.
5. Nehemiah did an incredible job helping to _____ the city physically, spiritually, emotionally and economically.
6. After Nehemiah was in Jerusalem for 12 years, he returned to _____ to be with the king.
7. Some people _____ to God in the crisis only to _____ Him in the good times.
8. Spiritual amnesia causes us to forget about all the _____ and only remember the _____.
9. Jesus freed us from sin but sometimes we're tempted to think about it and forget all the _____ it caused us.
10. We're under the rule of God's authority but there's still a war going on that we must fight with _____ and resist _____.

Your lives: What are 3 disciplines you need to put in place, starting now?

Your family: What is the one action step you can take this week to rebuild your family?

Our city: What is one step you can take right now to make our city a better place? What are 3 things you can do to make an ongoing difference?